Introduction

Have you ever quit a site because you were tired of a girl and joined another site just to find the same girl in their members area as well? MaskTV may be the answer to that problem!

Adult Review

MaskTV is a site that has quietly been around since 1998. That may lead you to expect the members area to be gigantic... but that is not the case. MaskTV is a micro-niche adult site that is more interested in creating a community than in the quantity of material they produce.

The site currently holds (20) original and exclusive movies that you can download. What makes them special is that they star actual members who sent in video ideas and then agreed to star in their own show along with the help of some professional talent. Often the amateurs appear with masks over their faces to protect their identity, hence the name MaskTV.

As just one example of their content: When Rose wrote into MaskTV, she wanted to have her first-ever threesome with another woman and her boyfriend Blair. We love hearing from couples so we pulled out all the stops to make this a memorable experience! We brought in petite blonde Tobi to seduce Rose with her expert tongue, sensual touching, and lots of toy play. Then when Blair surprised the two women in their lesbian lovefest, it turned into a hot orgy with lots of licking, sucking, and wild fucking! This is one MaskTV fantasy that is not to be missed!

Every scene also comes with plenty of behind the scenes footage, pre-fantasy and post-fantasy interviews and even director commentary. This is as close as you can get to being on the set of a smut shoot and watching all the work that goes into making fantasies come to life.

The site offers plenty of bonus material including text stories, picture galleries, adult games and the like. The interface is well designed and easy to use. The site even has a messageboard (operating since 2006) with posts from the stars of the shows that allows you to interact directly with the casts and crews.

All in all the site is headed in the right direction but for a site to claim on its tour it has been around since 1998 and then to offer only 20 complete scenes in its members area is a bit surprising. The material is worth downloading but the amount of material (at least at this moment) doesn't appear to be worth the price of admission unless you are really looking to be involved in the community that they are trying to foster.

Porn Summary

Take a look at the tour and see what they offer. They are real people living out their fantasies and sharing their most intimate moments with you. If they had another 60 or 70 episodes in their archives it would be a site near the top of its niche.

Review Rating

The Tongue says 'A great idea that gets you as close to the action as you could ever be... but only has 20 complete movies in its archives.'
