Introduction

You can join any one of a million websites to watch one girl after another fake an orgasm. The truth is these girls are not very good actresses and you can tell when they are really getting off or when they are just trying to grind out a paycheck. At Real Orgasms the girls get paid to cum... not to act.

Adult Review

As the old saying goes: "If you want the job done right, you had better do it yourself." Real Orgasms features some of the world's most dazzling beauties going to town on themselves in a wrist-flicking frenzy. Fingers, toys and all kinds of battery operated appliances get into these one woman shows as each and every performer edges across the finish line by achieving a state of bliss so euphoric that it seems more like art than smut.

Some of these women have never appeared on any other website before or since their work was done on this site. These are all exclusive shoots that will not be found anywhere else. When you download one of these women you are getting twenty or thirty minutes of the most private and intimate moments of her life each captured with fist class video and sound. Just look at one of the trailers on the site tour and see what you have been missing.

Also, your Real Orgasms membership gets you free full access to 20+ other premium websites, some of which are reviewed as well and listed on the right side of this page. With the network of sites updating several times every week your cock will never again be sitting around with nothing to do!

There is no DRM coding on the files so you can keep anything you download in your permanent collection. Each and every episode has large format broadband enhanced files and shorter well segmented dialup friendly versions as well. They even offer streaming versions for viewers who are afraid of getting caught with porn on their home or work computers.

To give you an idea how cool the producers are, they actually ask you a five question survey after you sign up to make sure the kind of smut they are making is exactly the kind of smut you want to be watching.

At $24.95 the price of the membership is reasonable but beware of the 3 day trial offer because while it looks like a good deal it actually recurs at a much higher rate. When you decide to sign up make sure you do it at the monthly rate not the trial, your cock will thank you now and your wallet will thank you later!

Porn Summary

Real Orgasms will make you cum, that is how exciting it is to see one of the performers make herself cum for real in front of the camera... just for you! It may be her masturbating in front of a camera, but as long as you are watching... she's never really alone!
