Introduction

Fresh faced smut starlet wannabees who answer an ad in their local paper and show up on their own dime to take part in the "audition interview." These are girls you have not seen before and may not ever see again, get 'em while they're hot!

Adult Review

The backstory for this site is actually pretty simple. The guys producing it put real ads in local newspapers asking for fresh talent that wanted to audition for a career in the adult film industry. Then they sat back with their feet on their desks and waited.

The result is a website full of brand new girls who and some faces you now know from other sites who got their start here with Hushpass back in their DvD production days.

If you want the kind of starlet that still has a bit of the 'ole new car smell on her when she gets her panties down around her ankles, get a good look at this one.

This site is offered up by a production house that made its name originally as a DvD distributor of fine filth. Now as they move over into the digital segment of the market they are taking with them many years of production expertise and a willingness to do content that the more softcore marketers usually shy away from.

The content is excellent, the videos are offered in a variety of formats and this is all original and exclusive smut you wont find elsewhere. Many of the actresses are fresh faces which is always a plus and the action is solid from start to finish.

The only knocks against the site come from the fact that these guys are DvD makers changing over to the digital market and they have not yet worked out the technical kinks as well as they work out the on screen kinkys.

The interface is a bit simple looking and lacks some functionality youd expect from a top line site. Also, the text work that comes with each clip is more like what you read on a DvD back cover and less informative than you might hope for a website.

Worst of all, the broadband versions of the videos are chopped into 8-15 segments in most cases and require you to sit and download each one at a time with no option to get a whole scene with a single click.

As another sign they are a DvD company in transition they also do not offer any kind of trial membership at this time. Their content is well worth the full month price but with no trial available you'll have to take TheTongue's word for it.

Even with those negatives the site still stands up rather well against the competition... and will have your cock standing up rather well also. Given some time to finish their transition from boxed discs to web work this site will become even better.

Aside from this site your membership gets you access to all the HushPass sites which are listed on the right side of this page. That is a ton of content and almost every second of it is well worth watching!

Porn Summary

One sweet young girl after another walking through the doors of a makeshift casting office and hoping to use a simple newspaper ad and their body to build a small fortune.
