Introduction

Yanks is successful because it stays true to a very simple concept. Watching a woman have a real orgasm while she masturbates is fun. So simple and yet it has taken a long time for a site to come along and do it the way Yanks does. Authentic orgasms served up daily!

Adult Review

Yanks is owned by a real couple named Todd and Billie, they run the whole show there at Yanks. They hand-pick the models and review every single scene before it is released to their members to make sure it is natural, real and well produced. They don't worry about whether a scene is "hot" or not because they understand that any real orgasm that is well filmed is by its very nature hotter than any contrived garbage that some other paid actress fakes on some other website.

Todd and Billie were both bartenders from Southern California and as any bartender quickly learns, your honesty and credibility are everything you have in life. If your customers trust you to provide them with good service they will come back again and again.

There are so many sites out there these days that are just ripping each other off and copying the latest craze by filming fake girls who pretend to be having a good time while they think about where they will be spending the paycheck they get after the show is over.

Yanks girls are different. They are there because all they have to do is have an orgasm. Instead of faking their way through things they dislike for a paycheck, they show up and eagerly enjoy every moment of fingering, vibrating, slippery wet action and as an added bonus they even get paid for their time.

Perhaps the best proof that the girls on this site are really enjoying themselves is the fact that the site now holds over 160 Videos of real women rubbing one out for you. Some girls are repeat performers and some girls are big name stars but at the end of their scenes you can tell by the look in their eyes that what they just showed you was more intimate than some absurdly choreographed 200 man gangbang performance. Yanks is intimate and intimacy is what you really want when you log into a site and start downloading clips to quench your thirst.

The videos are offered in .wmv and .mov downloadable formats which is great news for Mac users who have been looking for a site that is compatible with their Apples. The videos are also provided in streaming formats so those of you who don't want evidence on your hard-drive can watch a scene and shut down the site in complete comfort and privacy. After all, being comfortable is what a good real orgasm is all about.

Keep in mind, the site does not have a single male performer on it. If you want to watch women get fucked this may not be the site you are looking for. However, The Tongue suggests you look at the tour before making up your mind. This is not like most other smut sites on the web these days and it may be something you didn't know you wanted until the first time you see one of these girls brighten up the entire room with a big smile as she drips sweet nectar onto the couch.

Along with the videos Yanks offers up hundreds of high-res picture sets, bonus feeds and even an online message-board where members can chat with each other and the Yanks staff. A message-board that provides direct public feedback from members to site owners is a rare thing these days and a great sign of the kind of customer interaction and support you can expect as a new member.

Porn Summary

This simple idea has been tried before but the companies that tried it always managed to screw it up somehow. Yanks just does what they say they are going to do. They give real women a comfortable place to undress, let them pick whatever toys
